charter member.

The General Society of Colonial Wars was organized on May 9 and 10, 1893, in the Governor's Room, City Hall, New-York, by delegates from five States and the District of Columbia. A Constitution was adopted on May 10, 1893, subject to the approval of a majority of the delegates present at an adjourned meeting of the General Assembly, and the General Officers were then elected. An adjourned meeting of the General Assembly was held at the Hotel New Netherland, New-York City, on December 19, 1893, and the Constitution as amended unanimously adopted.

A meeting of the General Council was held in Carpenter's Hall, Philadelphia, Pa., on May 8, 1894, and another meeting was held in New-York City on November 12, 1894. The Secretary-General announces with deep regret the death, on July 29, 1894, of Mr. Nathan Gillette Pond, Deputy-Governor General of the Connecticut Society, and a founder of the Society, August 18, 1892.

CONSTITUTION.

PREAMBLE.

Whereas, It is desirable that there should be adequate celebrations commemorative of the events of Colonial History happening from the settlement of Jamestown, Va., May 13, 1607, to the battle of Lexington, April 19, 1775:

Therefore, The Society of Colonial Wars has been instituted to perpetuate the memory of those events, and of the men who, in military, naval, and civil positions of high trust and responsibility, by their acts or counsel, assisted in the establishment, defense, and preservation of the American Colonies, and were in truth the founders of this nation. With this end in view it seeks to collect and preserve manuscripts, rolls, relics, and records; to provide suitable commemorations or memorials relating to the American colonial period, and to inspire in its members the fraternal and patriotic spirit of their forefathers, and in the community, respect and reverence for those whose public services made our freedom and unity possible.

ARTICLE I.

NAME.

The Society shall be known by the name and title of the General Society of Colonial Wars.

ARTICLE II.

MEMBERSHIP.

Any male person above the age of twenty-one years, of good moral character and reputation, shall be eligible to membership in the Society of Colonial Wars, who is lineally descended in the male or female line from an ancestor :

(1) Who served as a military or naval officer, or as a soldier, sailor, or marine, or as a privateersman, under authority of the Colonies which afterward formed the United States, or in the forces of Great Britain which participated with those of the said Colonies in any wars in which the said Colonies were engaged, or in which they enrolled men, from the settlement of Jamestown, May 13, 1607, to the battle of Lexington, April 19, 1775; or

(2) Who held office in any of the Colonies between the dates above mentioned, either as

(a) Director-General, Vice-Director-General, or member of the Council, or legislative body in the Colony of New Netherlands ;

(b) Governor, Lieutenant or Deputy Governor, Lord Proprietor, member of the King's or Governor's Council, or legislative body in the Colonies of New-York, New Jersey, Virginia, Pennsylvania, and Delaware ;

(c) Lord Proprietor, Governor, Deputy Governor, or member of the Council, or of the legislative body in Maryland and the Carolinas ;

(d) Governor, Deputy Governor, Governor's Assistant, or Commissioner to the United Colonies of New England, or member of the Council, body of Assistants, or legislative body in any of the New England Colonies.

One collateral representative of an ancestor such as above specified, shall be eligible to membership, provided there be no existing lineal descendant, and provided that such person be the oldest collateral representative in the male line, of such ancestor, or has filed with the Secretary-General of the Society written renunciations from all other persons having nearer claims to representation.

No State Society shall adopt any rule of eligibility for membership which shall admit any person not eligible for membership in the General Society.

But any State Society may, except as to members transferred from another State Society, further restrict, at its discretion, the basis of eligibility for membership in its own society.

ARTICLE III.

GENERAL SOCIETY.

The General Society of Colonial Wars shall consist of the societies now existing in the States of New-York, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Massachusetts, Connecticut, and District of Columbia, and such other State Societies as may from time to time be duly organized and authorized by the General Society.

Whenever the word "State" occurs in this Constitution it shall be held to include within its meaning the Territories of the United States, and the District of Columbia.

ARTICLE IV.

OFFICERS.

The officers of the General Society of Colonial Wars shall be—a Governor-General, a Deputy Governor-General from each State Society, a Secretary-General, a Deputy Secretary-General, a Treasurer-General, a Deputy Treasurer-General, a Registrar-General, a Historian-General, a Chaplain-General, a Chancellor-General, and a Surgeon-General. With the exception of the Deputy Governor-Generals the above officers shall be elected by a plurality vote of the delegates present at a General Assembly of the Society. Vacancies occurring by death or resignation may be filled by the General Council, for the unexpired term. Each Deputy Governor-General shall be elected by a plurality vote of the delegates present in the General Assembly from the State from which said Deputy Governor-General is chosen. The above officers shall serve until the next regular meeting of the General Assembly, or until their successors are duly chosen.

ARTICLE V.

MEETINGS.

The regular meetings of the General Society shall be termed "General Assemblies" and shall be held once every three years, at such time and place as the preceding General Assembly may elect. Special General Assemblies may be held upon the order of the Governor-General, or upon the order of the Governors of three of the State Societies.

General Assemblies shall consist of the General Officers and five delegates from each State Society. Delegates or General Officers representing a majority of the State Societies shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business; and proceedings shall be in accordance with parliamentary law. The order of business shall be—

First. The calling of the General Assembly to order by the Governor-General, or in his absence by the Secretary-General.

Second. Prayer by the Chaplain-General.

Third. Reading of Minutes of last General Assembly.

Fourth. Report from Secretary-General.

Fifth. Report from the Treasurer-General.

Sixth. Reports from Committees and Officers.

Seventh. Unfinished Business.

Eighth. New Business.

Ninth. Reports from State Societies.

Tenth. Election of Officers.

Eleventh. Benediction by the Chaplain-General.

The minutes of each Assembly shall be read before its final adjournment.

ARTICLE VI.

STATE SOCIETIES.

Each State Society shall annually transmit to the Secretary-General a circular letter stating the number of its members, general matters of interest, and any suggestions which may be deemed of advantage to the Society. Each State Society shall, in the month of January in each year, pay to the Treasurer-General the sum of $25.00.

ARTICLE VII.

POWERS OF THE GENERAL SOCIETY.

The General Society shall have sole power of action in the national, as distinct from the State, affairs of the organization. It shall have jurisdiction to pass upon all questions of eligibility referred to it by the Registrar-General; but shall not otherwise interfere in the regulations or government of any State Society, unless by a plurality vote of the General Assembly, when the surrender of a State charter may be demanded, should an investigation show that such action is necessary for the welfare of the Societies at large. It shall have power to grant charters to States other than those in which the Society is already organized, provided that at least nine persons duly qualified to be members make such application. It shall issue the insignia and the diploma of membership. It shall publish the Year-Book with the coöperation of the several State Societies; and the cost shall be defrayed by the latter in proportion to their membership.

The General Council, which shall be composed of all the General Officers, shall exercise the powers of the General Society (except those of demanding State charters, and of amending the Constitution) between meetings of the General Assembly, to which latter body it shall regularly report all its transactions.

ARTICLE VIII.

GOVERNOR-GENERAL.

The Governor-General, or in his absence, a duly selected temporary presiding officer, shall preside at all General Assemblies and meetings of the General Council of the Society.

ARTICLE IX.

SECRETARY-GENERAL.

The Secretary-General shall be keeper of the Great Seal of the Society, and of the General Society flag, and of the diploma. He shall conduct the general correspondence of the Society and keep a record thereof. He shall have charge of the printing and publications of the Society. He shall give due notice of the time and place of the holding of all meetings of the General Assembly, and of the General Council; and shall keep full record of their proceedings.

ARTICLE X.

TREASURER-GENERAL.

The Treasurer-General shall collect and keep the funds and securities of the Society, and deposit and invest them subject to the direction of the General Council. Out of these funds he shall pay such sums as may be ordered by the General Council. He shall keep a full account of his receipts and payments, and at each General Assembly, or when required by the General Council, shall render an account of the same. He shall be custodian of the die of the insignia, and may issue the insignia and rosettes.

For the faithful performance of his duty, he may be required to give such security as the General Council may deem proper.

ARTICLE XI.

REGISTRAR-GENERAL.

It shall be the duty of each State Society to file with the Registrar-General a duplicate of the application of each member. The Registrar-General shall receive and file all duplicate applications upon which membership has been granted, with a list of all diplomas signed by him, and all documents which the Society may acquire. It shall also be his duty to submit to the General Council any application for membership which, in his opinion, does not fulfil the requirements of Article II. of this Constitution.

ARTICLE XII.

HISTORIAN-GENERAL.

The Historian-General shall keep a detailed record of all historical and commemorative celebrations of the General Society, and shall edit and prepare for publication such historical addresses, papers, and other documents as the Society may decide to publish.

ARTICLE XIII.

CHAPLAIN-GENERAL.

The Chaplain-General shall be an ordained minister of a Christian church, and it shall be his duty to officiate when called upon by the proper officers.

ARTICLE XIV.

CHANCELLOR-GENERAL.

The Chancellor-General shall be a lawyer duly admitted to the bar, and it shall be his duty to give legal opinion on matters affecting the Society when called upon by the proper officers.

ARTICLE XV.

SURGEON-GENERAL.

The Surgeon-General shall be a practising physician.

ARTICLE XVI.

GREAT SEAL.

The Great Seal of the General Society shall be: Within a beaded annulet, a title scroll, "1607, General Society of Colonial Wars, 1775"; and in base the motto: "Fortiter Pro Patria," surrounding diaper charged with nine mullets. Over all a shield, surmounted of the crown, bearing American colonial seals quarterly of nine: I. VIRGINIA: Argent, a cross gules between four escutcheons each regally crowned proper, the first and fourth escutcheons France and England quarterly; second escutcheon, Scotland; third, Ireland. II. NEW-YORK: Argent, a beaver bendways proper, on a bordure tenny, a belt of wampum of the first. III. MASSACHUSETTS: Azure, on a mount between two pine trees vert, an Indian affronte or, belted with leaves of the second, holding in his dexter hand an arrow paleways, point downwards, and in his sinister hand a bow paleways, of the third; upon a scroll proper, issuing from his mouth, the legend, "Come over and help us." IV. NEW HAMPSHIRE: Quarterly, first and fourth grand quarter of France and England; second, Scotland; third, Ireland; over all an escutcheon of pretence; azure billetee or, a lion rampant of the second, for Nassau. V. CONNECTICUT: Argent, a dexter hand issuing out of clouds in dexter chief, holding a double scroll proper, fesseways, bearing the legend, "Sustinet qui transtulit"; in base fifteen grape-vines, six, five, four, leaved and fructed proper. VI. MARYLAND: Quarterly first and fourth paly of six or and sable, a bend counterchanged, for Calvert; second and third, per fesse and per pale argent and gules, a cross bottony counterchanged for Crossland (seal of Lord Baltimore). VII. RHODE ISLAND: Azure, an anchor in pale or. VIII. NEW JERSEY: Quarterly, first, England impaling Scotland; second, France; third, Ireland; fourth, per pale and per chevron; first, gules two lions passant guardant in pale or, for Brunswick; second, or, semée of hearts, a lion rampant azure, for Lunenburgh; third, gules, a horse courant argent, for Westphalia; over all an inescutcheon gules, charged with the crown of Charlemagne. IX. PENNSYLVANIA: Argent, on a fesse sable, three plates; (Arms of Penn.)

ARTICLE XVII.

INSIGNIA.

The insignia of the Society shall consist of a badge, pendant by a gold crown and ring, from a watered silk ribbon one inch and a half wide of red, bordered with white and edged with red. The badge shall be surrounded by a laurel wreath in gold and shall consist of:

Obverse; A white enameled star of nine points bordered with red enamel, having between each starpoint a shield displaying an emblem of one of the nine original colonies ; and, within a blue enameled garter bearing the motto "Fortiter Pro Patria," an Indian's head in gold relieve.

Reverse ; The star above described, but with gold edge, each shield between the points displaying a mullet, and in the center, within an annulet of blue bearing the title "Society of Colonial Wars, 1607-1775," the figure of a colonial soldier in gold relieve. The reverse of the crown of each insignia shall bear an engraved number, corresponding to that of the registered number of the member to whom such insignia has been issued.

The insignia shall be worn by the members on all occasions when they assemble as such, for any stated purpose or celebration, and may be worn on any occasion of ceremony. It shall be worn conspicuously on the left breast ; but members who are or have been Gentlemen of the Council of a State Society, may place a rosette of regulation pattern upon the silk ribbon from which it is pendant. Members who are or have been General Officers, or Officers of a State Society, may wear the insignia with three jewels in the crown, and suspended from a regulation ribbon around the neck. Members who are or have been Governors, Deputy Governors, or Lieutenant-Governors of State Societies, or officers of the General Society may, in addition to the insignia so suspended, wear a ribbon of the Society's colors, three and one-half inches in width, extending from the right shoulder to the left hip. The insignia shall be worn only as above prescribed.

The rosette in use by the New York Society was adopted by the General Society, but by error the description was omitted in the Constitution.

ARTICLE XVIII.

DIPLOMA.

The diploma of this Society shall bear the following words :

GENERAL SOCIETY OF COLONIAL WARS.

To All Whom it May Concern.

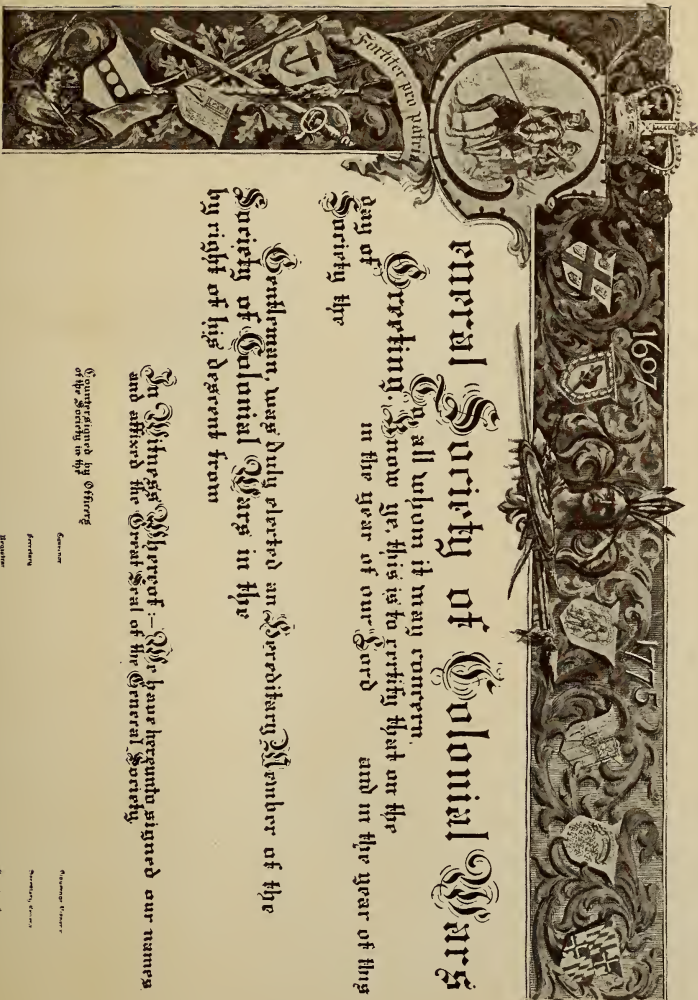

Greeting. Know ye, this is to certify that on the day of, in the year of our Lord, and in the year of this Society the Gentleman, was duly elected an Hereditary Member of the Society of Colonial Wars in the State of by right of his descent from Bordering the top and left side of the diploma is an ornamental scrollwork containing within the initial letter "G." of "General Society," a representation of Captain Miles Standish and a band of colonial soldiery; the initial surmounted by the imperial crown of the British empire, and having below it the motto of the Society. Ranged along the scroll are shields bearing the arms of the original nine colonies as emblazoned in the Great Seal of the Society; and around these are emblems of colonial warfare, with the flags of Sweden and New Netherland, and the rose, thistle, shamrock, and cornflower — badges respectively of England, Scotland, Ireland, and Germany. At the center, at top is a cluster of Indian weapons and the head of a Sachem charged upon the fleur-de-lis of France.

ARTICLE XIX.

FLAG.

The flag of this Society shall consist of the red cross of Saint George on a white field, bearing in the center the escutcheon of the General Society surmounted by the crown and surrounded by nine stars.

ARTICLE XX.

STATE SECRETARIES.

It shall be competent for the General Council to appoint State Secretaries in States where no State Societies exist, with a view to represent the interest of this Society, and, if authorized to do so, to prepare for the organization of new State Societies. Such State Secretaries shall be subject to the direction and regulation of the General Council. Their appointment shall be for a limited time, not to exceed one year, but may be renewed. They may be removed for cause, and their office shall terminate upon the organization of, and grant of a charter to, a Society in their State. They shall communicate with and receive communication from the Society through the Secretary-General.

ARTICLE XXI.

MEMBERS OF STATE SOCIETIES.

The General Council shall elect to membership only charter members of new State Societies; whose membership shall be ipso facto transferred to their own State Society with the grant of its charter. No State Society shall elect to membership persons resident within the territory of another State Society, except upon written consent given in advance by the Council of the latter Society. But members changing residence from one State to another, or coming within the jurisdiction of a new State Society, may at their option retain membership in the State Society in which they were originally admitted.

A member of any State Society may be admitted to membership by action of the Council of another State Society, within the bounds of which he is resident, upon satisfactory proof of his membership in good standing in the Society from which he comes, and subject to the rules and regulations of the Society he enters.

An initiation fee shall not be twice required.

ARTICLE XXII.

ALTERATIONS AND AMENDMENTS.

No alterations of, or amendments to, this Constitution shall be made, unless proposed by the Council of a State Society in writing. The Secretary-General shall send a printed copy of the proposed amendment to each State Society, naming the time when and the place where it will be voted upon, and the voting shall take place in the General Assembly. Six months' notice shall be given to each Society. No amendment shall be made, unless adopted by a two thirds' vote of the State Societies through their delegates in the General Assembly.

SOCIETY OF COLONIAL WARS IN THE STATE OF NEW-YORK.

The Society of Colonial Wars in the State of New-York, the first society organized, was instituted August 18, 1892, and incorporated October 18, 1892. The First General Court and dinner was held at Delmonico's, December 19, 1892, and the Second General Court and dinner at the Hotel Waldorf, December 19, 1893. The Third General Court was held at the Hotel Waldorf, December 19, 1894. During the past year the Society has been officially represented at the dinners of the Cincinnati and Sons of the Revolution on February 22, and at their church service, at the dinners of the Saint Nicholas Society, the St. Andrew's Society, and at the New England Society, at the parade of the Eighth Battalion N. G. S. N. Y., April 23, and at the unveiling of the Tarrytown Revolutionary Soldiers' Monument, October 19.

The flag of the Society consists of the red cross of St. George on a white field, with the arms of the Province of New Netherland on the center, surmounted by the Dutch ducal crown.

The membership clause in the Constitution has been amended, so that legislative service unaccompanied by military record no longer constitutes eligibility.

In Memoriam

125. CHARLES ELLIOT LORD, died Nov. 26, 1893.
*2. NATHAN GILLETTE POND, died July 29, 1894.
55. FRANCIS COTTENET HARRIMAN, died August 3, 1894.
67. THOMAS LUDLOW OGDEN, died October 2, 1894.
52. AUGUSTUS WHITE MERWIN, died Dec. 13, 1894.

In the death of Nathan G. Pond, a life member, the Society lost one of its most earnest workers, and one whose place can never be filled. Mr. Pond was born in New York City in 1832, and died at his residence in Milford, Conn. He was a founder of the Society on August 18, 1892, and was a Gentleman of the Council. He was also a charter member of the Society in Connecticut, its first secretary, and Deputy Governor-General for the General Society. He was also a member of the Order of the Cincinnati and Society of the Sons of the Revolution.

Francis C. Harriman, a life member, was born in New York City April 7, 1862, and died there. He was a member of the Saint Nicholas Society, the Sons of the Revolution, and the Seventh Regiment Veteran Association. He enlisted in Company K, 7th Regiment, N. G. S. N. Y., in 1881, and for twelve years served successively as private, corporal, and quartermaster-sergeant.

Thomas L. Ogden, a life member, and the first Historian of the Society, was born in 1840, and died at Spring Lake, N. J. He was a prominent member of the New York bar, being senior partner of the firm of Ogden & Beekman. He was a graduate of Columbia College, a member of the Saint Nicholas Society, a vestryman of Trinity Church, a member of the Bar Association and the University and Knickerbocker Clubs.

Augustus W. Merwin, a life member, was born in Norwalk, Conn., July 31, 1834, and died at Wilton, Conn. He was a member of the Order of the Cincinnati and Society of the Sons of the Revolution.

SOCIETY OF COLONIAL WARS IN THE COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA.

The Society of Colonial Wars in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania was the first one chartered after the New York Society, the date of organization being January 23, 1893.

The second annual dinner was held at Philadelphia, January 16, 1894, to commemorate the settlement of the city of Philadelphia.

Christ Church, Philadelphia, on account of its unique historical associations in connection with the colonial period, has been officially selected as the Chapel of this Society.

The first annual Church Service was held at the Chapel of the Society, Sunday, November 25, 1894, to commemorate the 136th anniversary of the capture of Fort Duquesne.

Eligibility for election to membership in this Society requires that the ancestor of the applicant must have been a Commissioned Officer, or a Governor, Deputy-Governor, or Member of the King's or Governor's Council, or Commissioner to the United Colonies of New England previous to 1775.*

* Previous to December 22, 1893, descendants of Members of Assembly were eligible.

In Memoriam

36. GEORGE M. COATES, died November 12, 1894.

Mr. Coates was born in Philadelphia, March 29, 1845, and elected a member of the Society April 7, 1893. He was the son of Joseph P. H. Coates. He graduated from Haverford College in 1863, at the age of eighteen years, and the degree of Master of Arts was conferred upon him at the age of twenty-one.

He was a man of marked business ability, strong religious convictions, and great decision of character.

Mr. Coates was a devout member of the Episcopal Church, and was for twenty-one years a vestryman and seven years warden of Christ Church.

He was a member of the Historical Society, Geographical Society, Penn Club, Civil Service Reform Association, Citizens' Municipal Association, Forestry Association, and many other like societies.

He was most conscientious to aid and support these societies.

SOCIETY OF COLONIAL WARS IN THE STATE OF MARYLAND.

THE Society of Colonial Wars in the State of Maryland was incorporated at Baltimore, February 28, 1893, and organized March 25th, the two hundred and fifty-ninth anniversary of the landing of the first Maryland Colonists under Leonard Calvert. The first public meeting was held at the Maryland Historical Society's rooms, on November 22, 1893, the two hundred and sixtieth anniversary of the sailing of Calvert's expedition in the Ark and the Dove from Cowes, Isle of Wight, England, November 22, 1633. A Social Court was held on November 22, 1894. Eligibility for membership by descent from private soldiers subsequent to 1700 is not recognized by this Society.

In Memoriam

6. NATHAN GILLETTE POND, died July 29, 1894.

Mr. Pond was a charter member of the Society of Colonial Wars in the State of Connecticut, being No. 6 on the roll of membership. He was the first Secretary, and the first Deputy Governor-General to the General Society.

SOCIETY OF COLONIAL WARS IN THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA.

The Society of Colonial Wars in the District of Columbia was organized, May 20 1893, with a membership of twelve and was incorporated on November 17, 1893. The first General Court was held on December 19, 1893, and officers were elected for the ensuing year. The membership at that date was 25. The second General Court and dinner took place December 19, 1894, in honor of the 219th anniversary of the Great Swamp Fight.

A constitution was adopted and printed during the month of December, 1894. Prior to that date the Society was governed by the Constitution used by the New York State Society.

Any male person above the age of twenty-one years, of good moral character and reputation, shall be eligible to membership in the Society of Colonial Wars in the District of Columbia, who is descended from an ancestor who fought in battle under Colonial authority, or who served as a Governor, Deputy-Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, or member of the King's Council, or as a Military, Naval, or Marine Officer, Soldier, Sailor, Privateer, or Marine in the service of the Colonies, or under the banner of Great Britain in North America in the wars in which the said Colonies participated, or enrolled men from the settlement of Jamestown, Virginia, from May 13, 1607, to the Battle of Lexington, April 19, 1775, provided the claim to eligibility is satisfactorily based upon the service of an ancestor who performed duty as above under Colonial sanction, or British enlistment in North America, either in garrison, in the field, or on the sea; or was descended from men who rendered conspicuous civil service in a period of warfare.

In Memoriam

14. REVEREND JAMES OWEN DORSEY, died
February 4, 1895.

The Reverend Mr. Dorsey was born in 1849 in Baltimore, and died in Washington. He was the first Chaplain of the Society of Colonial Wars in the District of Columbia, and took an active interest in its welfare. He was connected with the Bureau of Ethnology, and greatly interested in the work of civilizing the Indians. In May, 1871, he was a missionary among the Ponca Indians, whose language he learned. He published numerous works among the reports of his Bureau, his latest book being entitled "Omaha Dwellings, Furniture, and Implements."

SOCIETY OF COLONIAL WARS IN THE STATE OF ILLINOIS.

The Society of Colonial Wars in the State of Illinois was chartered by the State of Illinois on October 13, 1894, and by the General Society on November 12, 1894.

On December 7, 1894, a meeting was called by the incorporators, to be held at the Grand Pacific Hotel, Chicago, at which time a constitution and by-laws were adopted and officers chosen.

The first annual banquet was held at the Union League Club on the evening of December 19, 1894, the 219th anniversary of the Great Swamp Fight.

Eligibility for election to membership in this Society is the same as that of the General Society, except legislative service unaccompanied by military record is not recognized.

THE SOCIETY OF COLONIAL WARS IN THE STATE OF MISSOURI.

The Society of Colonial Wars in the State of Missouri was the first one organized in a Western State, having met at the Lindell Hotel, St. Louis, with twenty-four charter members on November 22, 1894, and fully organized. It was chartered by the General Council, November 12, 1894.

The Society adopted as the date for the General Court, October 10th, which date commemorates the possession of Fort Chartres, and the battle of Point Pleasant. For by the Treaty of Paris, concluded February 10, 1763, the question which had been in doubt for a century whether French or English domination should control this continent was settled for all time. By this treaty Canada and that portion of Louisiana between the Alleghanies and the Mississippi came into possession of Great Britain.

Captain Stirling with a company of the 42d Highlanders came down the Ohio in boats from Fort Pitt, arriving early in October, 1765. On the 10th day of that month he relieved the French Commander of Fort Chartres, St. Ange, who for some months had been under orders to give up the fort whenever a force of British came to relieve him. These were the first English troops that ever put foot in the Illinois country.

Fort Chartres, built by the French in 1720, was, in its time, the strongest fortress in America. Its ruins are on the left bank of the Mississippi River in Randolph County, Illinois, fifty miles south of St. Louis, and sixteen miles northwest of Kaskaskia.

October 10, 1774, occurred the battle of Point Pleasant, at the junction of the Kanawha with the Ohio River. This was a most important battle, and the complete victory over the Indians under Cornstalk put an end to their assaults upon our frontiers.

Both these events were important Colonial footsteps in the direction of the West.

The rules laid down by the General Society as to eligibility to membership were adopted by this Society.

The committee having been successful in raising sufficient funds to erect a suitable memorial to commemorate the capture of Louisbourg, June 17, 1745, consider that a brief account of the undertaking may be of interest to the members of the Society.

The fame of the strength of the fortress, and difficulties to be overcome were so great, that when Governor Shirley first proposed the scheme to the General Court of Massachusetts Bay, it was rejected, and when reconsidered was carried by only one vote. While the expedition was a New England enterprise, New York sent ten cannon, powder, and provisions; New Jersey and Pennsylvania also contributed money and clothing. The expedition sailed March 24, 1745, and consisted of 4,070 men: 3,250 from Massachusetts Bay, 304 from New Hampshire, and 516 from Connecticut. The Rhode Island contingent of 150 men arrived after the surrender. The troops were embarked in a fleet of 90 transports and 16 armed vessels under Captain Edward Tyng. The fleet reached Cape Breton early in April, but on account of the ice was prevented from landing at Louisbourg, and remained at Canseau, where the English ships under Commodore Warren joined the expedition on the 23d of the month. On May 1st the whole force was safely landed at Gabarus Bay, a short distance to the westward of the fortress. Louisbourg was a fortified town on the easterly end of Cape Breton Island, and was supposed to be the key to the French possessions on the river and gulf of St. Lawrence. The fortifications were commenced by order of Louis XV., in 1720, and cost about six million dollars. In honor of the event he ordered a medal struck off, and it is proposed to have the reverse of the medal issued by the committee, in honor of the 150th Anniversary of the capture, a facsimile of the reverse of the French medal. The town, which contained churches, a hospital, and many buildings, was situated on a tongue of land between the harbor and the ocean, being protected on the land sides by powerful bastions connected by curtain walls of earth and masonry with a wide moat and glacis. The water fronts were protected by earthworks and palisades. Across the harbor, half a mile wide and two miles long, was the Grand Battery, built to protect the narrow entrance. Between Rochefort Point, the end of the tongue of land on which the old town was built, and Light House Point, the other side of the entrance to the harbor, was an island with a battery on it. The country around the fortress was slightly undulating and swampy in places over which the besieging forces, with great difficulty, dragged their cannon. A reconnoitering force, under Colonel Vaughan, flanked the position, burned a quantity of stores and buildings, and occupied the Grand Battery, which they found abandoned. Not having a flag, a New England boy, William Tufts, climbed up the pole and fastened his red coat to it. The heavy guns captured here were of great use in reducing the works, which were so strong and well defended, that they were not surrendered until June 17th, after much suffering and gallant fighting on both sides. The total losses of the New England forces during the siege were 130, but several hundred died subsequently while in garrison, until relieved the following spring by regulars from Gibraltar. The French lost in killed and wounded about 200; and Governor Duchambon surrendered 650 regulars, 1,310 militia, 2,000 inhabitants, besides the frigate Vigilante with her crew of 560 men, captured early in the siege. The fleet rendered valuable service in blockading the harbor and by its moral effect; but all the fighting was done by our gallant New England forefathers. It is unnecessary to give the personal history of the principal officers, as they will be found in the Index, for this Society is fortunate in numbering among its members many of their descendants. Louisbourg, though now deserted save by a few fishermen, still shows that it was a strong fortress with glacis, moat, ramparts, gateways, bastions, and casemates, in which the sheep now find a refuge from the wintry blasts, though there are people yet living, whose grandparents found a shelter there from the storm of New England shot and shell. The long rows of unmarked graves have been neglected by their countrymen for a hundred and fifty years, but in a few months a lofty granite shaft, crowned with a cannon ball, of victory, will do honor to the memory and gallant deeds of the American soldiers of 1745.
